COOKIE POLICY

What is a Cookie?

Websites utilize cookies to provide personalized and fast experiences to their visitors. Cookies are identification files left by websites on computers. Essentially, cookies enable the recognition of a computer when users revisit the same site.

Use of Cookies

This page contains information about the cookies used on www.ozersoylar.com website, their purposes, and cookie management.

By visiting www.ozersoylar.com, you consent to the placement of cookies on your device for website usage. If you do not wish these cookies to be placed on your device, you can reject their usage via browser settings. However, in this case, there is a risk that some areas of the website may not function properly.

Personal data obtained during the use of cookies is processed in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Law No. 6698 and other relevant legislation. Detailed information about the processing of personal data is available on our website.

Özersoylar may change, remove, or add new cookies used on www.ozersoylar.com website when deemed necessary. Therefore, the cookie policy may also be updated over time.

Özersoylar may share personal data within the scope of cookies with third parties, business partners, and subsidiaries of Ersoy Holding group companies within the framework permitted by the legislation.

Cookie Categories and Functions

Cookies on the Özersoylar corporate website (www.ozersoylar.com) are generally used for the purpose of "ensuring the proper functioning of the website," "monitoring website performance," "enhancing user experience," and "marketing and advertising activities." The categories and details of cookies are as follows:

- Essential cookies: These cookies are necessary identification cookies for the proper functioning of www.ozersoylar.com website. In the absence of these non-marketing cookies, the basic functions of the website cannot be used, and the website cannot function properly. Therefore, these cookies cannot be optionally accepted.

- Analysis and performance cookies: These cookies collect information about the use of the website by visitors to improve user experience. Reports such as which pages are visited frequently, the duration of page visits, and errors encountered by users are made possible through these cookies. Analysis and performance cookies aggregate this reporting as general anonymous information rather than on a user-specific basis.
- Marketing and advertising cookies: These cookies are used within the scope of personalized marketing and advertising activities conducted on the website. Cookies are added to the site by third-party advertising partners in collaboration with Özersoylar.

Cookie Management

Except for essential cookies, "Analysis and performance" and "Marketing and advertising" cookies on our website can be rejected by users. Additionally, users can remove existing assigned cookies at any time using the options of their browser. If users' browser settings are not set to default to rejecting cookies, users can reload cookies to their device every time they visit the website.

In case of rejecting cookies, users may not receive personalized services and may not fully benefit from all features of the website.
